

13th–15th September

Conference

Common Sense Geography

Implicit Geographical Knowledge in Antiquity

KONTAKT

Prof. Dr. Klaus Geus, FU Berlin
klaus.geus@fu-berlin.de
Tel. 030/838-53422

LOCATION

Thursday, 13th September:
Kartenlesesaal der Staatsbibliothek,
Unter den Linden 8

Friday, 14th and Saturday 15th September:
Simón-Bolívar-Saal, Potsdamer Straße 37

www.topoi.org

THURSDAY, 13TH SEPTEMBER

19:00 Wolfgang Crom (Berlin): Kunstvolle Bücher und Künstlerbücher

FRIDAY, 14TH SEPTEMBER

10:00 Klaus Geus (Berlin): Introduction

Chair: Pascal Arnaud

10:15 Thomas Poiss (Berlin): Ancient Perspectives on Landscape: Searching for Alternatives to the Hodological Approach

11:15 Anca Dan (Berlin/Paris): Common and Uncommon Sense Geography in Xenophon's Anabasis

12:15 Serena Bianchetti (Florence): Die Wahrnehmung und die Beschreibung der Insel Albion

13:15 Lunch

Chair: Thomas Poiss

14:45 Michael Rathmann (Berlin): Die Tabula Peuteringiana als Wissensspeicher

15:45 Coffee Break

16:00 Ekaterina Ilyuchetchkina (Moscow/Berlin): Common Sense Geography in Verses: The Didactic Poetry of Dionysius Periegetes

17:00 Gian Franco Chiai (Berlin): Thinking and Constructing Space: Insularity as Mental Model

SATURDAY, 15TH SEPTEMBER

Chair: Kurt Guckelsberger

10:00 Martin Thiering (Berlin): Implicit Knowledge Structures as Mental Models in Common Sense Geography

11:00 Daniel Knitter (Berlin): Common – Sense – Geography: What the Modern Geography Has To Offer

12:00 Coffee Break

12:15 Pascal Arnaud (Lyon): The Geography of Mariners and the Geography of Periplus: Orientations and Distances; From Common Sense Geography to Euclidean Geography

13:15 Lunch

Chair: Klaus Geus

14:45 Viola König (Berlin): Mental Mapping in Mesoamerika

15:45 Coffee Break

16:00 Jan Stenger (Berlin): In Stein gemeißelte Topographie: Geographische Vorstellungen in griechischen Inschriften

17:00 Alexander Podossinov (Moscow): Geographie in griechischen Romanen: Exakte Wissenschaft und/oder Common Sense Geography